

Motec consultative discussion with Chief Patron is a success!

Some Motec project leaders supported by the Prof Nigel Standfield of the London postgraduate School of Surgery were hosted by Lord David Alton and Lord Bernard Ribeiro at the House of Lords on Monday 14th of September 2015. Meeting was also attended by His Excellency Mr Victor Smith, the Ghana High Commissioner (UK & Ireland) and his senior official responsible for education Mr William Osafo.

Dr Louisa Draper, Vice President deputising for Mr Ofori-Atta led a Motec team which included Mr Peter Dyson (co-patron and Hertfordshire based spinal orthopaedic surgeon), Mr Steve Goh (Peterborough City Hospital), Dr Natasha Jiwa (Homerton hospital, London), Mr David Anti,(Imperial), Mr Caesar Mensah (Public Health England) and Clare Philippa Dyson (South Africa). Projects in Ghana were discussed and support and direction sought from the forum. Report is expected to be released in due course
